

Career Dreamin'

Years of big dreams
Dreams I yearn to explore
Voices heard in these dreams
Resonate in the depths of my core

Urging me to push forward
Chasing dreams brings hopes and desire
Fueled by sacrifices of others
Inspired by those I admire

Influenced by experiences in life
Work, leisure, and personal interactions
Career plans flowing like the ocean's current
Altered by assessment of performance & satisfaction

Seeking a comfortable fit
Begging cupid to shoot my matching career
Navigating through roadblocks and barriers
Embracing support as I steer

Faced with economic turmoil
No use to complain or point blame
Searching for a glimmer of chance
Planning to capitalize & embrace a new gain

Actively seeking my dreams
With aspirations that continue to rise
Ready to pounce like a cat
Eyes fixed on the prize

Feeling my way up this path
Staying true to the script
Flexible and open to change
Growing with every step on this trip
