

Celebrating My Career Dreams

Amy C. Crew, M.S.

Dream. Hope. Learn. Share. Inspire. Create. Celebrate.
I teach.

Many twists and turns have my life and career taken
It is not just a career, however, but a life that I am making

Professionalism has its place,
But passion takes the cake

Teaching extended its open hand
I accepted although that's not what I had planned
With trepidation and enthusiasm
I began to fill that chasm

First a student to be always
I am reminded that I am only clay
The reciprocity of the teacher-student maze
Humbles and fascinates me all of my days

The Big Coach calls the plays
I am here simply to enjoy His ways
I can teach one to write. I can teach one to spell.
The most important lesson is to live life well

Lessons for others and me I want my legacy to be
I want to reflect more than just a degree
Hope to be and hope to do
Let life guide you
Imagine and dare
Life life with flair
One cannot attain a star unless he reaches for it.
On your dreams, on your life never quit.

I am a teacher - joyfully.
One is my career and me.
Dream. Hope. Learn. Share. Inspire. Create. Celebrate.
