NCDA CAREER COUNSELOR EDUCATION DIRECTORY 2011-2012

Founded in 1913 as the National Vocational Guidance Association; a founding division of the American Counseling Association, Alexandria, Virginia

NCDA opposes discrimination against any individual based on age, culture, disability, ethnicity, race, religion/spirituality, creed, gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, marital/partnership status, language preference, socioeconomic status, any other characteristics not specifically relevant to job performance. (January 2010)

NCDA Recognizes Excellence in Career Counseling Training

NCDA is pleased to highlight eight institutions that offer graduate level career counseling degree programs that have been approved by the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP). This designation by CACREP indicates that these programs have met the highest standards for professional preparation and program excellence. NCDA is committed to supporting the highest level of standards and professional competencies in the career counseling field. We want to acknowledge these programs for their role in helping to achieve this goal.
