

To Change Someone's World

To change someone's world,
you must first find your voice.
Because life is about choices,
through career development
you can better the establishment.

To make this world a better place for you and I.
Because if you have a dream you can reach for the sky.

Your voice being your career,
can steer
you clear.

To a brighter path,
to bring smiles and laughs,
to many people who call on your behalf.
Making a difference in their lives,
Just because you chose a career and you tried.
