Hire to Inspire

Do bosses hire to inspire?
Do they hope to find people who can work in crossfire?

Do they look at people who have potential?
Or do they just look at character essentials?

They hope to see what inspires each soul,
As each one hunts for a job that could make them whole.

In a world where it’s hard to find inspiration,
Workers want to inspire with a simple application.

Applicants draw on their previous life experience,
To hopefully work, and to truly make a difference
